Nuts brokers

About us

Hispania Nut Agents is a company of Agents of nuts founded in 2016 by Mr. Alberto Sánchez Jaen as a result of a renewal and incorporation of new concepts and ideas in the sector.

Initially, the activity began in Jaen, hometown of Alberto, although due to its important and rapid expansion moved to Granada, a strategic place before growth of the sector.

The first phase of the company was focused on Spanish market and bases on the three basics of the company:

Our way

How do we work?

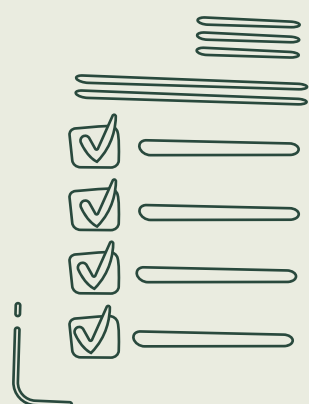

We offer updated and daily market information, always with an objective approach.

We advise our clients and suppliers, in addition to giving them a totally personalized treatment. We are on top of all operations carried out from beginning to end and always treating them in the first person, helping both parties, in order to make them their work easier.

We check each load for satisfying client expectations. Moreover, we do an objective quality control, with transparency.

All of this process comes with images given to both parties, client and supplier about, the almond sold.

Because of that, we count with the trust of almost every Spanish and American supplier, apart from a big quantity of clients, nationally and internationally.

First American business

As a consequence of the fast national expansion at the beginning of 2017 the first American almond business was carried out from origin. Maintaining the basic values, Hispania Nuts strengthens the relationship with the American market and get the trust of a huge number of companies.

First international expansion

At the end of 2017 an international expansion was carried out, exporting Spanish almonds through Europe with the purpose to introduce American almonds to our clients.

Who are we?

 Hispania
Nuts Team

HISPANIA NUTS AGENTS S.L. is a consolidated and continuously growing company that incorporates innovative ideas through a young and ambitious team. Over the years we have managed to establish ourselves and become one of the main references in the sector. We guarantee an efficient and transparent service.

Our success is the result of a direct and close contact between suppliers and clients both nationally and internationally, with almonds and pistachios of Spain origin and also with products of America origin. We study and analyze the market to provide the best possible information of buying / selling process, ensuring adequate quality standards.
